

Risk and Compliance Management

Our expert team of professionals deliver consulting, auditing and training services to provide stakeholders, including property owners, employers, PCBUs, officers and workers, with an increased awareness and enhanced practical capability to manage Work Health and Safety (WHS) risk and compliance.

Our programs provide a unique platform to address due diligence obligations and maintain proactive risk management methodologies.

Consulting & Auditing

NSCA risk based consultancy services include the provision of a comprehensive range of risk based assessments, reviews, development and audits designed to address statutory compliance requirements and proactive risk management principles and controls, including the following:

- Practical application of WHS requirements
- WHS inspections
- Building design and compliance
- Property, asset risk and compliance
- Risk assessment and control
- Risk and WHS management systems gap analysis
- Contractor management systems
- Sustainability, waste and environmental management
- Construction safety
- General workplace and public environment
- Public liability
- Slips, trips, falls and pedestrian management
- Confined spaces risk assessment and control
- Falls from height and falling objects
- Hazardous chemicals / dangerous goods
- Asbestos management
- Fire and emergency management
- Essential safety measures compliance
- Plant and equipment
- Radio frequency radiation
- Traffic management audit and conceptual design
- Legal and expert witness reviews
- Pre-certification audits to Australian Standard AS 4801 and ISO 18000

Training

The NSCA is a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) offering a range of risk based training at our facilities or at your workplace. We offer training programs in:

- Property Risk and Compliance (PRC) Management
- Incident Investigation
- Legal Case Study Workshops and Expert Witness Presentations
- Construction and Plant Safety
- Confined Spaces
- Prevention of Falls and Falling Objects
- WHS Act and Regulatory Compliance
- WHS Due Diligence
- CEO and Officers Due Diligence Briefings
- ISO 31000 Risk Management
- ISO 18000 OHSMS

Call NSCA for your risk solution

For further information, contact an NSCA Business Development Manager on 1800 655 510